In Memory Of . . .

Brandt L. Gunter

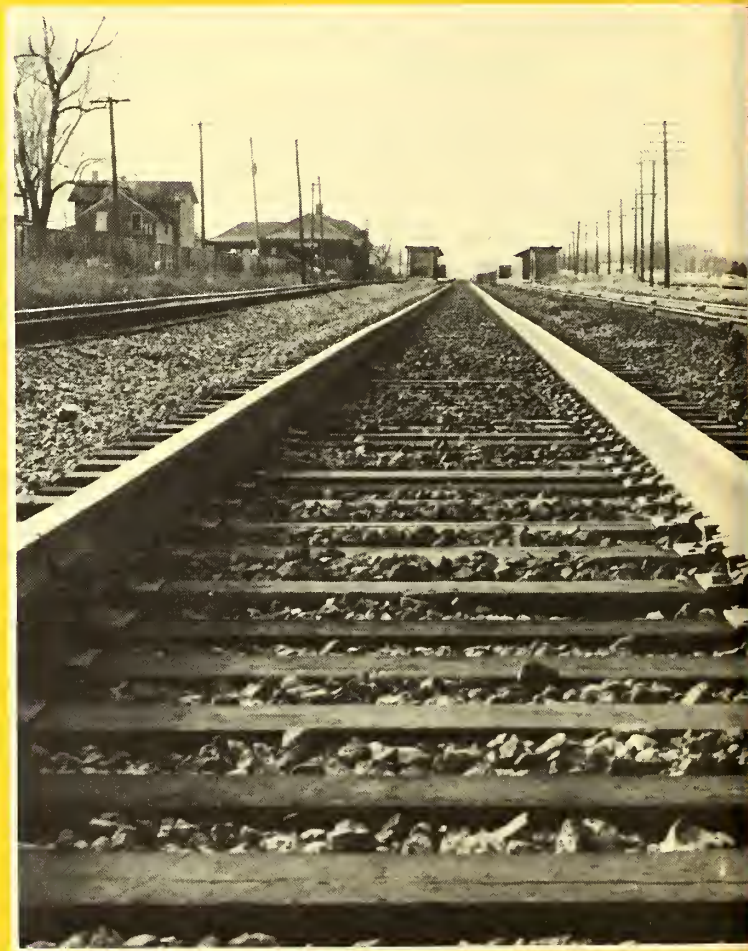

This year's book is dedicated as a memorial to Brandt Gunter, a person who always did his best to brighten up the world around him. Those who knew Brandt remember him as a person who constantly strove to improve on himself and who derived great pleasure from doing so. He would always question those around him and would never be satisfied until he understood. Still, Brandt always smiled. Even when things didn't go his way, he smiled. Then, the people around him caught on and began to smile also. Thanks, Brandt!

If there ever was a song to describe college life, this one by John Denver is it. We have all reached periods when we were trying to find out who we were and where we were going. There have also been times when we wished we could fly away.

Eventually, you, the students, will emerge and enter the mainstream of life. Hopefully, it will be into a "sweet, sweet dream". But, you will have to try, and you will have to care. Remember this year always, and let these pages take you back on a voyage through your personal road of experience!

The Way Is Easily Lost

You asked me, "What is courage?" And I took
 The dictionary down and spelled it out.
 For such a little boy, the heavy book
 Was ponderous. You twisted it about;
 You said, "It's being brave--and what is that?"
 You said, "It's not fear--am I afraid?"
 "Does Courage arch its back up like a cat,
 And spit at everything it meets?" you said.
 Perplexed, we closed the book and took a walk,
 And came where fire had worked untimely death;
 The woods were gone. But on a slender stalk
 A flower inched for life. I caught my breath.
 "Courage," I said, and took you by the hand,
 "Is one white flower in a fire-swept land."

Patterns

The night set softly
 With the hush of falling leaves
 Casting shivering shadows
 On the houses through the trees
 And light from a street lamp
 Paints a pattern on my wall
 Like the pieces of a puzzle
 Or a child's uneven scrawl.

Up a narrow flight of stairs
 In a narrow little room
 As I lie upon my bed
 In the early evening gloom.
 Impaled upon my wall
 My eyes can dimly see
 The pattern of my life
 And the puzzle that is me.

From the moment of my birth
To the instant of my death
There are patterns I must follow
Just as I must breathe each breath.
Like a rat in a maze
The path before me lies
And the pattern never alters
Until the rat dies.

And the pattern still remains
On the wall where darkness fell
And it's fitting that it should
For in darkness I must dwell.

Like the color of my skin
Or the day that I grow old
My life is made of patterns
That can scarcely be controlled

And When You Come To The End . . .

I come to the warmth of a wayside house and throw all my cares upon the fire. The weariness, which weighed like a heavy cloak, I shed with gratitude. My day's journey is done. Tomorrow -- tomorrow must come, but now I rest.

In Memorial

Dr. Glenn Reddick

Professor of Speech; Chairman of Creative Arts Division.

Early into the Spring term, the College Community was shocked by the sudden death of one at the most beloved profs on campus. Dr. Reddick spent much of his time with such activities as EPC, of which he was chairman, Forensics, and Theatre Productions. He had always been regarded as a guiding light by both faculty and students, and often acted as faculty spokesman at important functions.

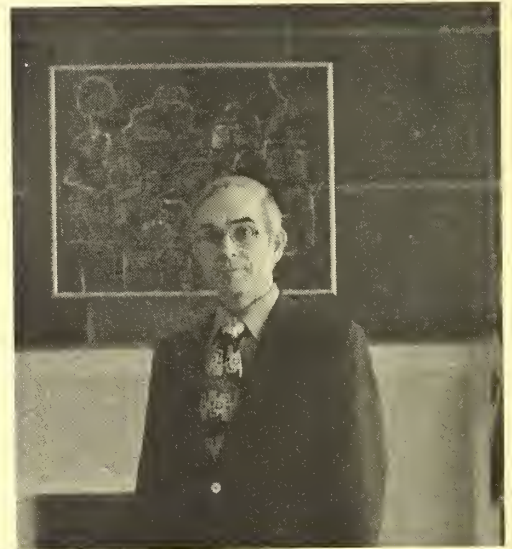

ORGANIZATIONS

Senate EPC

All academic decisions, whether curriculum, policy, or course changes go through this body of students and faculty. Dr. Glenn Reddick served as chairman of EPC while Dr. W. H. Nauman, (right) was secretary. Fred Lawson served in the capacity of Speaker of the Senate. The Student Affairs Board (below) consisted of the following members: L. Luze, R. Krahn, K. Kuppler, M. Janes, D. Voss, P. Grundy.

Choir

Vocal Music, under the direction of Bernard Izzo, consists of 3 major groups. The Choir is a large organization, singing mostly classical numbers, which gives several concerts each year. The Madrigals are a group of students singing acapella madrigals for dinners and special college functions, as well as for their own concerts throughout the year. The third major group is the Collegians, who sing popular numbers performed to choreographed routines.

ATHLETICS

Our Team

North Central saw an exciting and interesting season for the Football team. Vast improvements could be readily noticed as the team played better than from past years. Among the players who contributed to the team success and who obtained important honors included guard Mike Rizzuto, fulback Bill Shupryt, and punter Mike Utz. All made the CCIW all-star team. Shupryt led the CCIW in scoring with 86 points and Utz led in punting with a 35.2 average.

Happiness reflects a good win.

Both teams pile on top of the ball to recover the fumble.

Cross Country

"This is the finest Cross Country team in the history of North Central College. Every individual and team record was broken during the season. Our team showings were consistently stronger than any other year in each championship competition. Certainly, the highlight of the year was winning the NCAA Division III National Championship for the second straight year. During the competition, four North Central runners earned All-American honors which brings the total to 28 individual All-Americans since 1966 and 28 NCAA All-Americans during the past four years. The North Central Cross Country team has not lost a dual meet since 1966."

Basketball

Season Record: 9-17

"This is the first year since I've been in the conference that North Central played like they thought they could win a ball game," complimented Coach Joe Ramsey at Milliken. The Basketball team truly played an inspired and enthusiastic brand of basketball. Achievements that proved this included a 2nd place finish in the Lake Shore Classic Tournament, a win against 13-4 Lakeland College, and a 7th place finish in conference (out of 9 teams). Outstanding Cards included all-conference and all-stater Jeff Allen, excellent ball handler Mike Connolly, and Geoff Obermeyer, voted on the Saga all-tournament team.

Season Record: 3-12

The '76-'77 season brought many individual improvements, while the team as a whole saw exciting high and unfortunate low points. Despite the small team size in comparison to others and some close and disputable called games, features that favorably stood out for the Women's Basketball team included the two point victory against Triton, the very well played games with Elmhurst and DePaul skill and strategy wise, and the 32 points scored by Cheryl Long in the DePaul game.

Finishing an outstanding second place in the conference, the swimmers and divers went on to qualify eight out of an eleven man squad in the NCAA Division III National Meet (the most in NCC history). Despite the fact that the highest finish for the Swim team at the meet was 15th in the 100 medley relay, many new school records were made and many personal bests were achieved.

Dual Meet Record: 8-2-1

Conference Standing: 4th

The Wrestling team finished higher in all the tournaments this year than the 15 years previous. One of the best performers was 167 lbs. Jeff James. James consistently placed in all tournaments, was named outstanding wrestler at the conference championships, and gathered the best record on the team of 26-2.

Others with outstanding records and place finishes were Mark Allsopp (134 lbs.), Brian Boyer (142 lbs.), Tony Suggs (158 lbs.), and Ed Taveirne (HWT). The team proved to be tough against the competition.

Leaving other runners behind, Nina Kadera leads in the last lap ...

This year marked the beginning of the Women's Track team at North Central. Six women showed up on a regular basis to take advantage of the new track and competitive program. Competition included Eureka, Millikin, U of Chicago, Knox, Bradley, Wheaton, Lewis, and Concordia.

Because of the size of the team, a record of team score was not kept, but instead individual gains were emphasized. The season showed a marked improvement in everyone's times, and those women who participated had much to proud of.

Fourteen athletes went to the NCAA Division III Championships in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Bruce Fischer earned his third All-American certificate by placing third in the steeplechase in 9:15.1. The Track team accomplished these feats and won their third consecutive CCIW title with a whopping 203 points, well ahead of runner-up Augustana's 160. NCC champions include: Don Milkent, 440, 49.7; Ed Martin, 120 high hurdles, 14.9; Rich Scott, steeplechase, 9:36; and both the 440 and mile relays. Besides tying or breaking 14 school records, Cardinal runners grabbed six places in the Illinois Intercollegiate Championships, the outdoor meet being contested on NCC's Chevron track. Indoors, the team successfully defended their Midwest title, boosting their winning total to seven victories in the last eight seasons.

This year's men's tennis team managed to pull off another season without a North Central Coach. They did surprisingly well in some of their matches, and constantly improved, thus paving the way for a possibly good and experienced team in 1978.

Although they struggled in the win-loss column, the Women's Tennis team members improved in their individual skill and strategy, as competition went on. Besides competing in the seasonal matches, Most Valuable Players Annette Leppellere, Marilyn Pickers, and Arlene Hradek also participated in the 6th Annual Cleo Tanner Memorial Invitational, the Millikin Invitational, and the IAIW State Small College Championship.

Season Record: 4-6

With the second year of Softball at NCC, coach Thornburg's team showed lots of improvement, but continued to be plagued by the lack of pitching experience. And with five of the women graduating, team members Mary Lavine, Vicki Jacobsen, Cheryl Long, Cindy Marschalek, Mary Janes and Kathy Savage will provide a core of leadership for the Spring of '78.

Season Record: 16-12

The Women's Volleyball season started out 9-2. But, the sudden plague of injuries and the lack of experience cost the team several games. Victorious games against Northwestern and Chicago State highly exhibited the women's skill. And in their final year, seniors Arlene Hradek, Cindy Fencken, Sara Morrison, Joyce Pianovski, and Marilyn Pickers enjoyed fine seasons.

Volleyball

As Marla Zager prepares for possible back-up support, Mary Lavine blocks an opponents spike.

Strategy is stressed in a pre-game huddle.

From a bump-set, Cindy Fencken sets the ball for a spike from either Cindy Marschalek or Mary Lavine.

Despite the slider's valiant effort, the umpire decides that he's out.

In Co-ed Volleyball, Cindy Marschalek sets the ball up to Sara Morrison.

Nothing that was worthy of the past
departs;
No truth

ever dies,

But is all
still here,

lives and works

Homecoming

This year's Homecoming brought campus spirits to an all time high. Events included a semi-damp parade, a former graduate turned magician, The Lettermen, Casino Night, and an exciting, yet disheartening 7-7 tie in the Homecoming Game against Carrol College.

Gordon Lightfoot (1972).

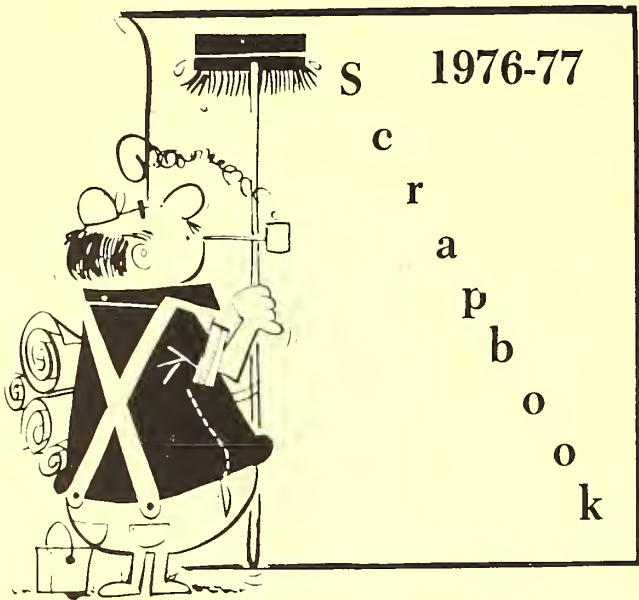

At last, it's finished! I was beginning to wonder these last couple weeks, but we pulled it off. Take a good look, North Central. This is your first yearbook in many long years. Sure, it's not perfect, but you have to think of this as an experimental book. If you help out on next year's edition, it can improve even more

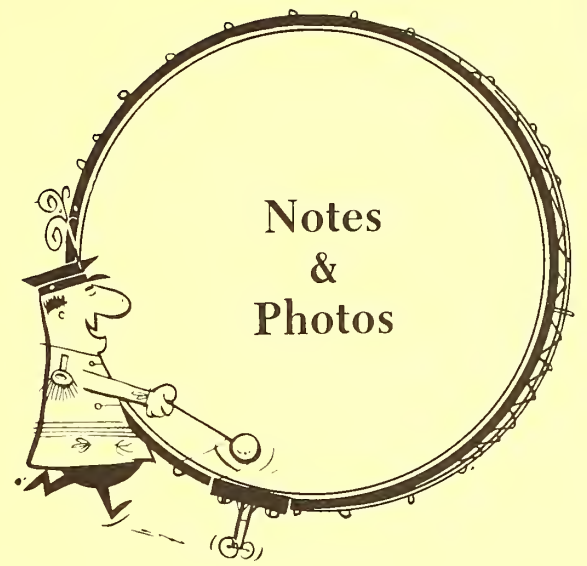

This book is the sum of the efforts of many people. Special thanks must go to Georgia Velisaris, Judy Wofford, and Doreen Penczek for their help in the layout of this book. Their time and creative force contributed greatly to the flavor of the pages.

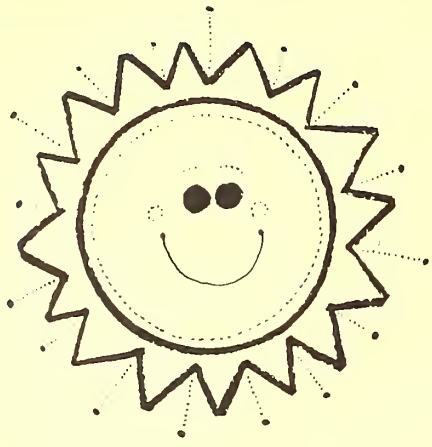

Most of the photography in the book is courtesy of Cindy Sikorski, Kriss Brown, Chris Larsen, and myself. Without photos, a yearbook can't exist!

A final thank you goes to all the campus community who constantly supported us by purchasing the book, by having your portraits taken, and by personally encouraging us to continue. Jim Bull of American Yearbook Co., you were a big help! Thanks everyone!!
